

Imelda Bangun, Ph.D., ESOL Literacy

Education: Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communication from Saint Louis University in the Philippines; Master of Science in Educational and Interdisciplinary Studies (Major: Language, Culture, and Education) from Western Illinois University; Ph.D. in Technology in Education and Second Language Acquisition from the University of South Florida.

Distinguishing Honors: She taught English to Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) in Indonesia from 2006-2009. She also taught adult ESOL at Eastern Iowa Community Colleges from 2014-2017. She taught English for Academic Purposes at the University of South Florida from 2017-2019. She has been teaching adult ESOL Literacy at the Adult Education Center since 2019. She regularly presents at national and international conferences on the topics of e-learning, multi-literacy, motivation, and metacognition. She has published an entry on Lexical Collocations in the TESOL Encyclopedia and a book chapter on Transnational Practitioner with Routledge and Telecollaboration in Project-Based Learning with Equinox. Her other publications in peer-reviewed journals include topics such as Metacognition, Peer Evaluation, Corpus Linguistics, Computer-Assisted Language Learning, Literacy, and Digital Storytelling.